

EXAUDI

GOHTIC METAL

Description

The exaudi sound is based on the interplay of female vocals, growling and atmospheric choir parts.

Massive guitar sounds, piano and orchestral keyboard sounds build up the base for the melodic songs with German lyrics.

The string instrument parts are played by a nyckelharpa. The use of a flute once in a while brings interesting sounds to the songs.

Discography

The first demo was already published in 1999. The second one "Demoedition 2001" followed in 2001, followed by our first EP "Ein Stein" in 2003.

Our first album "Sehnsucht" was published in 2010.

After some member changes we are now actively playing concerts. Our latest EP album "Morgendämmerung" was published in 2016.
